

PROJECTS

ENERGY AIR, INC.
Nobody Works Harder

Orlando Lutheran Towers

“Energy Air was involved from the first day of conception on the Orlando Lutheran Towers Assisted Living Facility and was a vital asset in the design of the facility. Energy Air assisted Jack Jennings and Sons and the Design Team through the maze of design options for an efficient HVAC System.”

Steve Buskirk
Senior Project Manager
Jack Jennings & Sons Construction Services

PROJECT SPECS:

- Project's installed mechanical value: approximately $1,600,000.00.
- Project Scope: 7-story, 102,500-square foot assisted living residential development on the corner of Jackson Street and Lake Avenue with 107 residential units and 12,000 square feet of ground floor support/amenity space.
- Schedule: 14 months.
- Size: 124,500 square feet with approximately 500 tons of cooling.
- Systems: Chilled water units consisting of horizontal fan coil units for residence units, central air handling units with variable air volume (VAV) system for 1st floor common areas.

